

1. Give thanks for the mental health drop in today. Pray that we will see full healing for those who suffer from mental illnesses. Pray for the many in Aldershot who suffer from depression, and pray for the peace and prosperity of the town. Pray for three people who don't know Jesus.

2. Pray for our services today, asking for a fresh encounter with the Spirit of Jesus, and with the cross of Christ. Pray for all the church meetings taking place on the HT site today, including the Nepalese Church and the African Church meeting in the Galpin Hall.

3. Pray for the assembly at Talavera today. Give thanks that we are able to go into 9 schools. Pray that the seed that is sown will bear fruit. Pray for tonight's PPP – and attend it – that it will expand the kingdom of God in Aldershot. Pray for a hunger for God and His presence.

4. Give thanks for the life and faith of Jean Williams and pray for her family and friends at her funeral today. Ask our Father for a sense of our own mortality, and ask him to show you one aspect of your life He wants to change to be more Christ-like.

5. Give thanks for those who lead worship and welcome people. Pray that HT will be a place where newcomers are welcomed and people build lasting and positive relationships. Pray that we will learn to worship and draw near to God in different ways.

6. Pray for high profile church leaders, Archbishop Justin, the Pope, Bishop Andrew. Pray for a special anointing of the Spirit for them, and for courage, wisdom and strength in the decisions they have to make and the example they set. Pray for protection for them and their families.

7. Pray for the TCPT tonight – for the work which they do on Thursdays and at the week-end. Pray for more people to come forward to help from all the churches. Pray for protection for them, and that the seeds sown will produce a harvest.

8. Give thanks for the Prayer Ministry team; pray for their ministry, that through them the Spirit will minister his healing and life giving touch to many. Pray too that we, as the people of God, will not hold back from asking for prayer.

9. Pray for our services today. Give thanks for all who serve on a Sunday – tech team, readers, prayers, coffee rota. Give thanks too for those who volunteer at other times. Pray that they will be blessed as they give of their time.

10. Pray for all in our church family who return to their frontlines this morning at the start of a new week. Pray that they will be signposts to the love of Jesus, and will know when to say something, and what to say. Pray for three people who don't know Jesus.

11. Pray for Jonathan, John and Simon while George is in London. Pray too for George as he spends time in London, for grace and peace. Pray too for Cara in her training, that this time will be a time of formation for her coming ministry. Pray for Debs, as she comes to the end of her training.

12. Pray for Tom Chittock and his work with OM. Give thanks for his service, and pray that he grows in the knowledge and love of the Lord Jesus. Pray for him as his time with OM draws to a close and he begins to face up to what he senses the Lord has for him next.

13. Pray for Women's Hour today. Give thanks for the faithfulness of those who organise, and pray that God's kingdom will come as a result of what happens today. Pray too for the Maundy Thursday communion in the evening, that we will meet Jesus at the cross.

14. Pray for the Good Friday walk with the cross through the town – pray that God will speak to people about Jesus' love, as shown by his death. Give thanks to the Father for the love he has shown us in Jesus, and spend time in wonder and worship.

15. Pray for the Easter Saturday afternoon Family Fun time. Give thanks for Simon and for all the families we are in touch with through this work and that of Contact. Pray that many will come and that relationships with our church members will be built up, as seeds of the kingdom are sown.

16. Pray for our Easter services today, that there will be a sense of joy at the truth that death is defeated. Give thanks for Jesus' resurrection, and pray that we will individually and as a community learn to live in the light of his resurrection.

17. Pray for Jackie Maw and the work in Wellesley. Give thanks for her recovery from cancer. Pray for wisdom for her in moving forward with the seed team and the work in Wellesley. Pray that there will be a flowering of the work, that contacts will be built and that a new Christian community will be born as the new houses are built.

18. Pray for the work of Tear Fund, as they seek to enable churches to help communities to help themselves. Give thanks for their focus on Jesus as the light of the world. Pray for wisdom in the way that they use the money they are given.

19. Pray for Don as he oversees the building. Give thanks for his faithfulness, and pray for wisdom for him as he deals with contractors to carry out repairs.

20. Give thanks for all the Fellowship and POD groups as they meet weekly to encourage discipleship, fellowship and pastoral support. Pray for our on-going transformation into the likeness of Jesus Christ.

21. Pray for the work of the Vine and the Source as they minister to vulnerable people, especially at this time. Ask God's blessing on their human and financial resources at a time of reduced authority funding. Pray for Ellie leading the Source and for the trustees of the Vine, for wisdom, discernment and courage for them in the decisions they have to take.

22. Give thanks for the work of Mike Ashworth, our treasurer, and also Annmarie Chittock and Paul Kirkup as they help. Pray that they know God's blessing. Give thanks for the way God has provided for HT in 2016, and pray for wisdom in the use of the resources we are entrusted with.

23. Pray for all the services on our site today, for a freedom in worship, and an awareness of the presence of the Spirit. Give thanks for the Bible and the Bible Society and pray for a real hunger for God's word in our lives.

24. Pray for the ACT prayer meeting this evening. Continue to pray for the prosperity of Aldershot, for a positive spirit in and over the town. Give thanks for the reduction in the suicide rate in the town and continue to pray against people taking their own life. Pray again for three people who don't know Jesus.

25. Pray for the Pastoral Care team and the Parish Nurses. Give thanks for them and many others who give practical expression of God's love for us. Pray for John and Jacque as they co-ordinate the work. Pray God's healing for those who are sick, and his comfort for those who are housebound.

26. Pray for the APCM which meets this evening. Give thanks for what God has done in and through Holy Trinity over the past year, and pray for what He wants to do over the next year. Pray for the election of a new warden and new PCC members.

27. Give thanks that we can meet without fear of persecution. Pray for a reliance on God even in good times.

28. Pray for the churches we have links with in India, that the pastors will be encouraged and strengthened in their ministries. Pray for our brothers and sisters throughout the world who suffer for the sake of their faith. Pray that they will be strengthened and know God's grace and fellowship. Pray for CSW and the work they do to help these people.

29. Pray that the Lord will strengthen and enrich all marriages at HT. Pray that there will be no marriage break-up at HT. Give thanks for our families, and pray that our Christian family will be a place where we learn love, grace and forgiveness.

30. Pray for the healing services today, for Tim Grant who will be speaking. Pray that we will come with expectant hearts, and that we will give the Spirit freedom to act. Pray that Jesus will be glorified through what is said and done, and that we will have stories to tell of the power of God at work in our midst.

HOLY TRINITY, ALDERSHOT

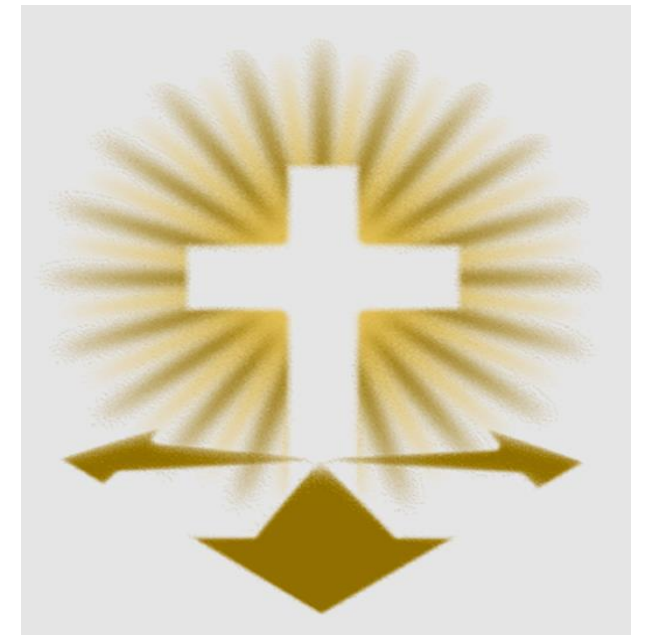

To know His love.

To show His love.

To share His love,

And to pray . . .

That Jesus will be known throughout Aldershot.

APRIL 2017 PRAYER LEAFLET

For what I received I passed on to you as of first importance: that Christ died for our sins according to the Scriptures, that he was buried, that he was raised on the third day according to the Scriptures. 1 Cor 15 v3-5
