

July 1 – 2

Read

I tell you the truth, whoever believes in me will do the same things that I do. Those who believe in me will do even greater things than these, because I am going to the Father. And if you ask for anything in my name, I will do it for you, so that the Father's glory will be shown through the Son. If you ask for anything in my name, I will do it.

(John 14 v 12 - 14)

Give thanks for

- The Soul Sisters Weekend Away
- 3 ways in which God has answered your prayers this past week
- The freedom we have to meet together every week
- Daphne, Jean and the support that they are for the ladies at Women's Hour

Pray for

- The follow up from the men's & Soul Sisters weekends away, for the men's breakfast this Saturday (1st) as they meet together and look for a continued outpouring of the Holy Spirit
- The Who Cares campaign, especially as some of the team visit two of the local schools' fetes this and next Saturday (1st & 8th)
- George and Jane, especially as his time in London draws to an end, that it may have been fruitful
- Debs, our new curate, as she prepares to start working at HT, for her ordination on Sunday (2nd). That God will continue to build her in ministry and will use her in a mighty way in Aldershot

July 3 – 9

Read

Through Jesus, therefore, let us continually offer to God a sacrifice of praise – the fruit of lips that openly profess his name. And do not forget to do good and to share with others, for with such sacrifices God is pleased.

(Hebrews 13 v 15 – 16)

Give thanks for

- Cara nearing the end of her first year as a student and what she does at Holy Trinity
- Three ways in which God has blessed you this past week
- The provision of St John's Hall
- The work of the Holy Spirit in your life

Pray for

- The ACT assemblies team, as they continue to visit the schools and that the story and message will impact all who see it
- For the children and teachers, as they reach the end of the academic year, for a good break and a time of refreshing over the summer holidays
- For the year 6 children finishing primary school and moving up to secondary, and the 'It's Your Move' books, that they will be read and be a witness to them
- Preparation for the Summer Kids Club (Under the Sea), for the volunteers taking part and the children as they book in, for a time of fruitfulness and harvest to come from the club, family events and additional follow up
- The Family Ministry and for Simon and the team, as they look to God for the direction for the future of this ministry

July 10 - 16

Read

All the believers were together and had everything in common. They sold property and possessions to give to anyone who had need.

Every day they continued to meet together in the temple courts. They broke bread in their homes and ate together with glad and sincere hearts, praising God and enjoying the favour of all the people. And the Lord added to their number daily those who were being saved.

(Acts 2 v 44 – 47)

Give thanks for

- Mike our treasurer, for his work over the church finances and for God's provision
- Three ways in which you have been able to bless others this past week
- Continued testimonies of what God has done in the lives of people in our church
- Opportunities to carry out the Who Cares survey over the last few weeks

Pray for

- Good weather for the family BBQ (14th) and Picnic in the Park service (30th) and that they will both be a time of witness, fun and fellowship together
- People to be blessed and excited by spending the time together, through opportunities to share and receive hospitality with each other
- Opportunities to grow together as a church family, becoming closer to each other and to God through what we do
- That this won't just be a one-time thing, but that a hunger to meet, share and grow together will continue

July 17 - 23

Read

This is how God showed his love among us: he sent his one and only Son into the world that we might live through him. Dear friends, since God so loved us, we also ought to love one another. No one has ever seen God; but if we love one another, God lives in us and his love is made complete in us.

(1 John 4 v 9, 11 – 12)

Give thanks for

- The children and young people in our church and for what God is doing in their lives, as they grow in faith and love for God
- The Family BBQ and Share Lunch Sunday this last weekend and for opportunities to share together in our church family
- Three ways in which God has demonstrated his love and faithfulness in your life this week
- God's love and presence with us every day

Pray for

- 'Who Cares' – for everybody who has (or still will) take part asking and answering the survey, and for the conversations that have taken place
- For the message of love and hope, that Jesus cares so deeply to reach throughout the entirety of Aldershot (and wider)
- Wisdom for Jonathan and the team as to how we move forward with the information that is gathered
- For an enthusiasm and expectation for what God is going to do as we move forward
- For people on your own frontline and for opportunities to share the message of God's hope, love and care with them

July 24 - 31

Read

Love must be sincere. Hate what is evil; cling to what is good. Be devoted to one another in love. Honour one another above yourselves. Never be lacking in zeal, but keep your spiritual fervour, serving the Lord. Be joyful in hope, patient in affliction, faithful in prayer. Share with the Lord's people who are in need. Practise hospitality.

(Romans 12 v 9 – 13)

Give thanks for

- The mental health drop in and the support that is given to all those who come
- Three people you have been able to share God's love and faithfulness with this week
- The upcoming Summer Kids Club (Under the Sea), for the opportunity to share God's love with the children and their families
- Your testimony of what God has done for you and is doing in your life every day

Pray for

- A release of the Holy Spirit in our church, that all who come will receive from God in power and that it will spill over into our community
- For an end to mental health problems in our church and community and for no suicides in Aldershot
- The work of the Vine and the Source and the work they both do in Aldershot. For God's continued provision for both organisations
- Tom, as he prepares to leave the Logos Hope and for his future work with OM over the following few months
- Removal of any problems or blockages regarding the purchase of St John's Hall

HOLY TRINITY, ALDERSHOT

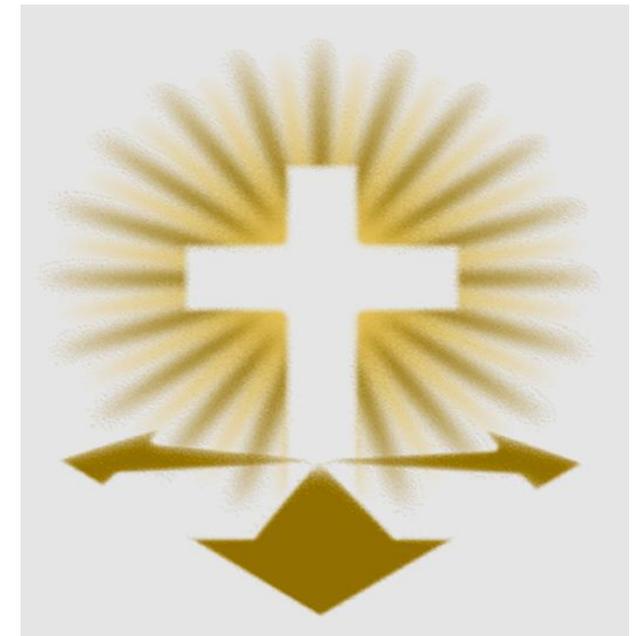

To know His love.

To show His love.

To share His love,

And to pray . . .

That Jesus will be known throughout Aldershot.

July 2017 PRAYER LEAFLET

And pray in the Spirit on all occasions with all kinds of prayers and requests. With this in mind, be alert and always keep on praying for all the Lord's people.

(Ephesians 6 v 18)
