

1. Easter Day. 'Jesus Christ is risen today. Alleluia!' Pray that we might see evidence of this transforming resurrection power in our lives, others' lives and in our town. Give thanks for all who will celebrate at Holy Trinity today, including our Nepalese and African brothers and sisters.

2. School holidays. Pray for families whilst children are on holiday from school, for a strengthening of relationships across all generations.

3. We continue to pray for the person God has called to be our new Children and Families Minister. Pray that all those involved will have been blessed through the interview process.

4. Give thanks for George and Jane as they have a few days holiday together. Praise God for who they are and not only for all the many ways in which they lead and serve us.

5. Pray for John and Jacquie, giving thanks for them and their ministry amongst us. Remember them especially as they prepare to move next month, (down the road), that all the practicalities will fall into place.

6. Pray for Kids Club and especially for Alan and Julia who lead it, that they might be refreshed during the Easter Holidays and that God will bring others to join them in this amazing opportunity to come alongside these children.

7. We continue to pray for the TCPT team and their faithful ministry to some of the most vulnerable in our town. Give thanks for the many testimonies of prayers shared and answered on our streets.

8. Today is Jonathan's last day as Associate Minister of Holy Trinity. As Sue and Jonathan step out into all that our faithful God has prepared for them, pray that they will be affirmed and encouraged as we worship together this morning.

9. PPP – Prayer, Praise and Prophecy: This evening at 7.30pm our church gathers to pray. Come along and join us, thankful for whom God is and expectant for all that he has prepared for us, our church and our town.

10. As we begin our 1:1 conversations with those who completed the recent SHAPE course, give thanks for all that we are learning together as the church of Jesus Christ here at Holy Trinity and that we might continue to grow up and grow together as we reach out to our communities.

11. Pray for Debs and Danny, Jacob and Joel as they prepare to move to Aldershot. Pray for Debs taking a couple of day's retreat that she might be able to draw closer to God in the midst of all that is changing.

12. Give thanks for the wonderful ministry of Women's Hour and especially for Daphne and Jean, supported by Cara. Thank God for friendships formed and the welcome extended to an increasing number of women.

13. Every month Christine does an amazing job editing and compiling our magazine. Give thanks for Christine and for Arthur and for all that they bring to our life at Holy Trinity.

14. Give thanks for the land and buildings that belong to Holy Trinity. We are blessed with an amazing group of volunteers gifted in administration, practical service and stewardship who work behind the scenes to support the ministries of our church. Pray especially for Dave, Don and the team, as they continue to progress the plans for the refurbishment of Crossover.

15. As we gather today to worship, remember all those who serve us to enable our worship here to happen. Today we pray especially for Janet as she takes on leadership of the Worship Team. Pray that as she steps into this role that she will be equipped and encouraged.

16. Continue to pray for three people on your front line who aren't yet followers of Jesus for an opportunity to talk to them about your faith.

17. Pray for health and well-being in body and mind today and especially for those who struggle with addictions or ill health that is life-limiting. Pray for Holy Spirit power to break through and set the captives free.

18. As we gather today around the Lord's Table for our mid-week Holy Communion service, give thanks for this time and those who meet here.

19. Contact meets again today after the Easter Holidays. Pray for the team that welcomes our toddlers and their parents and carers each week.

As Alpha meets tonight and for the final time on the 26th pray that participants will be able to get to the meetings and continue to see revealed through Jesus Christ their heavenly Father who loves them.

20. Pray today for all those who are unwell, in hospital or at home. Give thanks for all those whose care and visits encourage so many

21. As we gather to celebrate and give thanks for all that Sue and Jonathan have brought to our HT Family, continue to pray for them that they will know the Lord's peace and joy.

22. We are blessed at HT with wonderful children and young people. Give thanks for all the groups that meet today including Re-Form this evening and for all those who lead these groups including Caroline, Alan, Julia, Ben, Chaz, Pauline, Sue and Cara.

23. ACT Prayers. It is good news that as churches in Aldershot we are able to work together. Tonight we meet to pray together. Pray for deepening unity and love for each other as we serve this town in the name of Jesus.

24. As more people move in to new homes at Wellesley, continue to pray for the impact of Jackie Maw's Ministry and the team that have joined her in this mission.

25. Join us tonight as Holy Trinity gathers for the Annual Parochial Church Meeting, APCM. This is a time to give thanks for everything that God did through us at HT last year and to look forward to all that is ahead. Pray for those who continue to serve on the PCC, those who are standing down this time and those joining.

26. As Cara continues her studies at St Mellitus College, pray for her as she is away on study residential for the next few days. Also remember in your prayers, husband Stuart and children Luke and Hannah.

27. This weekend a group of men from HT are away together. Pray for good conversations, and openness to all that God wants to impart, especially during this time.

28. Pray today for those who are lonely, perhaps through bereavement. Ask that God might show us those around us who are in need of some company. Is there someone you are aware of that God is prompting you to get alongside?

29. Pray for all those who 'welcome,' us into the church each week, whether at the door or over refreshments. As they smile at us and welcome us in, let's remember to smile at them too!

30. Can you set aside a time for silence today, expectant that making the time to be with God in silence will be life-giving.

HOLY TRINITY, ALDERSHOT

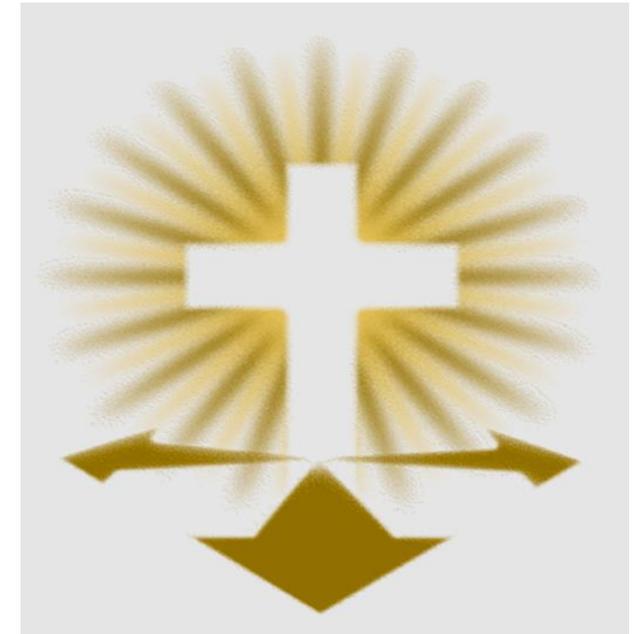

To know His love.

To show His love.

To share His love,

And to pray . . .

That Jesus will be known throughout Aldershot.
