

1 Pray for the building work which is going on over the coming months: That there would be no hold-ups and that all our ministries would continue to thrive and grow throughout this time.

2 Cara is on residential this weekend. Pray that God would be speaking to her while she is away, and that she would come back refreshed, ready for her final few months in Holy Trinity.

3 Pray for all the services which happen at Holy Trinity today, but in particular for our young people who are going through the Participate course. Looking at how they can participate in the full life of the church.

4 PPP is happening today! Pray that we would not only speak to God, but listen to him as well during this session. Pray that this meeting would continue to grow, as we seek God.

5 Pray for Jackie and the team at Wellesley, that they would continue to serve God in that area of the town, and that people would be open to their message.

6 'Every Wednesday there is a communion service. Pray for the people who attend this service, some who come on a Sunday morning and some who don't. Pray that it would be a significant time in the week, and that nothing would get in the way of them being there.

7 Pray for everyone who is involved in Womens' Hour, those who lead it and those who attend. It is a significant ministry of our church for many of the older members of our congregation.

8 Pray for George as he comes to the end of being Area Dean and for the selection of his successor and pray for the clergy Chapter meeting today.

9 Some members of our congregation, who work with the young people are attending a training conference today. Pray that they would come away blessed, having learnt lots, and with plenty of new ideas and excitement for the ministry.

10 This Sunday pray especially for the 9:30 service. In particular for more people to be involved in leading the worship here.

11 Our new small groups are beginning this week. Pray for those leading them, that they would be inspired and would be able to lead well, and the people would not only learn about God, but that they would know him, and be able to put that knowledge into action.

12 As the money from the collections are counted this morning, thank God for all the financial blessings he has given, which have allowed us to take on the major building project.

13 Deanery Synod is taking place today; pray for wisdom for all of those who are to be making big decisions.

14 Valentines Day. Pray that God would strengthen marriages of those within our congregation, and also for those who may be feeling especially lonely today.

15 Pray for Kids Club, this is the last session before half term. That as the kids are learning about the fruit of the spirit, that their own lives would be fruitful.

16 Pray for the teams who go out on the streets at night time, that they would be safe, and that they would effectively share the message of hope with all who they encounter.

17 This Sunday pray for those who lead worship across all the congregations, both in the morning, and the Nepalese and African congregations who use the church buildings on a Sunday afternoon.

18 This week is half term. Pray for the families, that they would have a good time together, and that our teams who are taking a break this week would enjoy their rest.

19 Pray for outreach to families. Our contact parent and toddler group, parenting for faith, and the family prayer session which will be taking place this half term.

20 General Synod is taking place today. Pray for wisdom and discernment for all those involved. Also pray for the missionaries whom our church supports.

21 Every Thursday teams of people go out to witness on the streets as part of the Town Centre Pastoral Team. Pray for those who are new to this ministry, and for the team as a whole, as they do this front line ministry.

22 Today, pray for Kingsley Court, the assisted living accommodation across the road from church. Pray for the bible study which takes place today, and for continued open doors.

23 Pray for all those who give their time to serve the church. Particularly those who do so much work in the background, such as the treasurers, flower arranging, and those who make tea and coffee.

24 Pray for all our services today, that we would see new people coming through the doors, and coming to know Jesus through these services. Pray in particular for the children's work that happens. That these teams would be strengthened, and for lots as fun as we seek to serve these children.

25 Pray for the 100 or so Nepalese ladies who come to the church to learn English. Pray that they would hear the good news of the gospel and that it would change their lives.

26 Pray for our ministry to the young people in the church. That God would guide us in the best way to do this; for more people with a heart for young people and for plenty of creativity.

27 This Wednesday please pray for the Year Six group. That this small group would continue to be excited about getting to know God, and that this relationship would continue throughout their lives. And that we would be able to support them in this through teaching them how to read the bible and pray.

28 Pray in particular for the young boys in our church. That we would know the best ways to engage them; that would be able to support them in their journey of faith and that they would grow to become men of faith.

HOLY TRINITY, ALDERSHOT

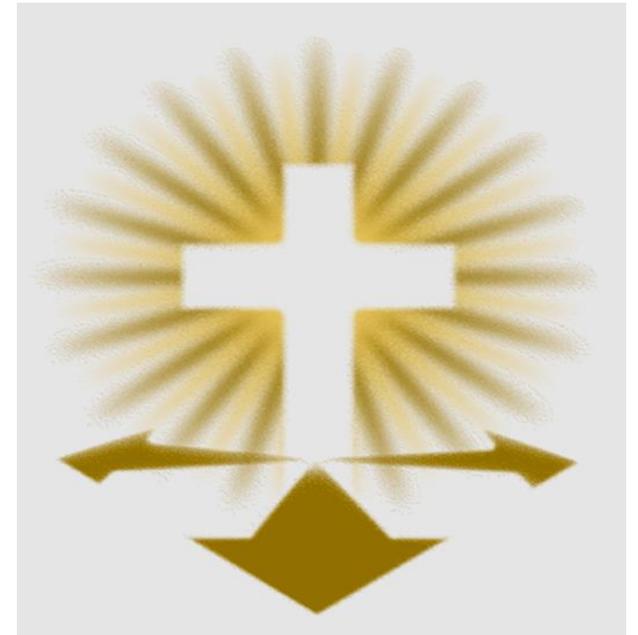

To know His love.

To show His love.

To share His love,

And to pray . . .

That Jesus will be known throughout Aldershot.

February 2017

You did not choose me, but I chose you and appointed you so that you might go and bear fruit - fruit that will last - and so that whatever you ask in my name the Father will give you.
