HOLY TRINITY CHURCH ALDERSHOT
'Church for Everyone'

SOUL SISTERS

Soul Sisters is Holy Trinity's answer to good fun, fellowship and generally a great laugh for all "the ladies" – young (over 14 years) and more mature.

Our annual trip to Axminster is fast approaching! It is the 16th-18th September, so put it in your diaries now! For those of you who have not been before, it's a great opportunity to get to know other ladies in the Church whilst relaxing in the beautiful setting of Weycroft Hall. There are times for teaching and fellowship, great food and lots of laughs! The theme for the weekend and cost will be confirmed shortly, but please make sure you sign up on the sheet at the back of Church, if you'd like to come.

If you are on Facebook, have you found our page? It's 'Holy Trinity Soul Sisters'. There are some great photos from the Fashion Show in June and also previous Axminster trips. We try and keep it updated with information about our events, so it's a good place to look if you have questions!

Verse for the Year 2016:

'So all of us . . . can see and reflect the glory of the Lord. And the Lord, who is the Spirit, makes us more like Him as we are changed into His glorious image.'

2 Corinthians 3:18

Thank you to everyone who contributed to this issue, including to Rob Kirkup for most of the drawings and to Natalie Mitchell for proof-reading.

Please note that the September 2016 issue of Update will be in Church on Sunday 28th August.

The LAST date for September articles will be Sunday 21st August

WHAT'S ON IN AUGUST...

Although August is a school holiday month, there's quite a lot which will be going on within Holy Trinity – please remember these in your prayers through the month.

On Saturday 6th, Sarah and Gordon are getting married at HT at 1pm. All are welcome to the service and there will be tea / coffee and cake afterwards.

The Kid's Club Rumble in the Jungle, runs the following week from Tuesday to Friday. It's really great that, as we go to press, Simon reports that this is now fully booked. Please pray that people will come along, and that the experience of people booking, but then not turning up won't happen this year.

After the Kid's club, we have Holiday at Home, which Dave Haley is organising again this year. However this year, rather than being three days in one week, it's running on three consecutive Thursdays; again please use the opportunity to invite people you know to this event.

As usual in the summer the 11.15 service will be an All-In service. We are planning on the last Sunday of the summer holidays – which is actually September 4th – to have a Praise in the Park service at 11.15 in Manor Park, rather than in the church, followed by a church picnic together. More details to follow, but we think that this could be a great family celebration.

ON the subject of family get-togethers, we are planning – weather permitting – to have a church BBQ on Friday August 19th at 5.30pm. This will be at the church, and not at George's house.

Lastly, from all of us on the staff, we hope you have the opportunity to have time and space to have a rest during August.

NEWS FROM TOM CHITTOCK

(Tom is on the mission ship Logos Hope)

Logos Hope was in Cape Town, her last port of call in South Africa, from 24th June to 11th July 2016 welcoming over 58,000 visitors on board and distributing over 63,000 items of Gospel literature.

The crew enjoyed more freedom than usual during their stay, as they were able to go ashore alone – usually safety rules allow them to go ashore only in groups.

20s30s

In July the HTCA 20s30s were blessed to be able to spend a weekend staying at the Old Palace at Canterbury Cathedral, a weekend of fantastic Bible Study and sessions led by Glen, with delicious food provided by Anita. The weekend focus was living a 'Joy Filled Life' where we looked at the book of Philippians and what we could learn from Paul about being joyful in Christ in all circumstances. Over the weekend, Glen led us in four sessions looking at:

- how being joyful can help encourage others to want to learn about Jesus,
- how God loves us and sees us as holy through Christ Jesus,
- how God uses the circumstances we are in to help us share our faith with others,
- how we can become more joyful by remaining positive and content, focussing on God's word, remembering that we are special to God and that he has a plan for our lives.

During the weekend we also visited Canterbury Cathedral and the beautiful city of Canterbury, some of us went to the beach for a paddle and on Saturday evening Simon led a quiz for us all. Belinda also created a beautiful star themed prayer station linked to Philippians and Rachel and Caroline provided lots of excellent activities for the children during the sessions, including biscuit decorating and craft linked to Bible stories.

The Old Palace was an excellent venue for the weekend, with very comfy rooms and fantastic facilities and space for everyone, and we are very thankful to have been able to use it. It was a really excellent weekend, where we all came away feeling spiritually and physically fed and one we hope we can repeat again next year if at all possible!

Looking ahead to August, our monthly Lunch at Jenny's cafe will be after the 11:15 service on Sunday 7th August. I hope you can make it! Do speak to Lisa, Belinda, Patrick or Ben for more info about our 20s30s group and events. Or check out our facebook group HTCA 20s30s for regular updates.

Thanks,

Lisa

ALDERSHOT CHURCHES PRAYING TOGETHER

The Aldershot Churches Together (ACT) prayer meetings are held monthly on a Monday (normally the fourth Monday of the month) at the Church of the Ascension, 1 Ayling Hill, at 7.45pm. This month's ACT prayer is on:

Monday 29th August 2016

WEYBOURNE FELLOWSHIP GROUP VISITS REMYCK HOUSE

Over the past few months, members of the Weybourne Fellowship Group have been visiting residents of the Remyck House retirement home in Eggars Hill and have received a warm welcome. It all began with Wendy Sear and Pam Hester visiting former HT member Wynn Hurrell; then they chatted to other residents and were asked by the Activities Manager, Cherry Barney, if they would come to visit everyone. This has developed into a monthly visit which may include singing, stories, poems, a Bible reading and prayer.

The Group has also made a "twiddle muff" for each resident. This is a muff made of different textures and colours and with ribbons, buttons and pockets to fiddle with.

Feedback from Cherry Barney has been very positive: "Originally some of the residents found difficulty in communicating, but they are now starting to join in with different things with the help from the members of the church, which has been lovely to see. ... We would like to take this opportunity to say a big thank you to the members of the church for the help and support that they have given. This has also been important for [residents'] spiritual and mental health."

We look forward to welcoming at least some of the Remyck House residents to "Holiday at Home" during August.

Thanks to Wendy Sear for supplying the information for this article

HOLIDAY AT HOME 2016

Holiday at Home, Holy Trinity's summer event for the more mature, returns in 2016 with a rather different format, but with the same mixture of activities, entertainment, fun and food. This year's theme is "In the jungle, the mighty jungle" and many of the activities will be related to the jungle theme.

Instead of three consecutive days in one week, there will be a Holiday at Home session on each of three consecutive Thursdays: 18th and 25th August and 1st September, each beginning with registration from 12.00, including a lunch and finishing at 15.30.

The programme includes:

- music and singalong
- seated exercise and a gentle dance
- jungle magician
- craft

Cards with more information about the programme are available in Crossover. Lifts can be arranged if needed.

WOMEN'S HOUR

On June 23rd Haydon Wilcox was our speaker and he told us about one of his group trips to the island of Iona. He told us about St Columba and the stories of the Abbey on Iona - a very interesting afternoon, as always with Haydon.

The next week we had an afternoon of poems and singing from Marion Squires. She has been entertaining us for a number of years and never fails to give us a great afternoon. A big thank you to Jonathan and Simon for moving the keyboard into Crossover for us, it made such a difference.

On June 7th our very own John Kellagher introduced cards called Grave Talk. We then went into groups and discussed the questions on the cards, such as "Have you made a will?" and "Have you prepared your funeral etc?" It was not a sad time, as many had a lot to say on these subjects and there was a lot of laughter too, so never think that our ladies don't have a sense of humour.

On 14th June various members took part in readings and poems, some serious, some funny. This is always an enjoyable afternoon and it was good to hear new members taking part.

June 21st was our end of Term Party, when Wendy Sears recited two Joyce Grenfell monologues and dressed appropriately - thank you to Wendy for being such a good sport. We also had a sing-along of all the old songs like "Pack up your troubles" and "Lili Marlene" and then we finished with a cream tea with scones, cakes, and ice cream, hopefully enjoyed by all. We also had a raffle and gave out presents to our committee, who do so much for Women's Hour through the year.

Women's Hour starts back on September 8th with a Communion service.

Don't forget Holiday at Home and if you are bored during our break we have plenty of wool and patterns to knit angels for Xmas; just ask Daphne or Wendy.

Daphne and Jean V

P.S. If anyone would like to knit for shoeboxes at Christmas, we need hats, scarves and knitted toys.

HOLIDAY AT HOME GOES WELSH

Glen (curate at Holy Trinity until April 2015) invited Trish and I to help him run a Holiday at Home. So we travelled up to Rhyl, and the event ran on Fri 8th July.

Glen and the senior vicar are responsible for three congregations, which meet in three different buildings. We held the majority of the event in the largest of the churches, St Thomas', which is only 30 yards away from Holy Trinity St John's.

There were about 40 guests for the event, and around 10 helpers. We had a group of folk and their staff from a local nursing home. Lunch was a challenge, with around eight of those people in wheelchairs, squashed into a relatively small hall in Holy Trinity.

Glen had worked hard and assembled a varied programme. We watched old video of Rhyl in its heyday - approximately 1900 to 1950, when thousands would come from the northern mill towns of Lancashire and North Wales for their annual holiday. Glen had assembled many old photographs of Rhyl which were displayed on the walls. Anita provided wonderful cakes and lunch.

There was Table Football, Roll a Penny and The Price is Right (price to be guessed in old or new money). There was a Thought for the Day, a Nostalgia Quiz and Comedy Theatre (being a northerner myself, it was rather wonderful to hear the droll delivery of the humour). We took the Tea Clippers north and raced them up the aisle of St Thomas' church. (Ask if you wonder what this involved)

We have had some positive feedback from Glen and Anita, and trust that there will be longer term benefits.

Dave and Trisha (Haley)

Big Mac Bite

Going wild in the aisles?

There's a "Rumble in the Jungle", can you hear it? We're now only a matter of days away from the start of our Summer Kids Club. The club will be running 9th - 12th August, culminating with the Rumble in the Jungle Family Special and All In service and (at the time of writing) we have over 80 very excited children (and some excited leaders as well) all ready for a jam-packed week of games, crafts, stories, teaching, quizzes, challenges, jungle-tucker trials and much more.

We now need volunteers to come and help out to be part of our amazing team throughout the week (or even for the odd day) by helping in the groups, with the games and crafts, in the kitchen, with registration and welcoming the children and parents, or with other vital roles. If you are able to help, please see the sign-up sheets at the back of church or for more information come and see me.

We now ask you to back the club and cover us in prayer over the next few days, throughout the week, and afterwards. Please pray for the children, their families and the leaders, for the preparations for the club, the programme, safety, fun and most crucially that God's love and saving grace will be made known to all that are part of the club throughout the week and that children's lives will be won for Him.

Rumble in the Jungle Family Special

You may have noticed over the last few months that we will be having a family special event on the Saturday afternoon (13th August) from 2.00pm. We have deliberately been keeping quiet as to what the event is going to be and I am delighted to be able to finally tell you what we are doing. We will be having a mobile zoo visiting us and putting on a show in the church.

There will be a good variety of animals and will likely include variety of birds, reptiles, insects and even a couple of mammals. The event will be open to all of the children who attend the Kids Club and their families, as well as all members of the church, so no matter what age you are it will be great to see you there. There will be a charge of £3 per person, however it promises to be an amazing event and one not to be missed. For more information about Impeyan (the company who will be coming) either come and see me or see their website (<http://charlesanimalencounters.co.uk>).

HT Kids Club Weekend Away

Even after the Summer Kids Club has finished the madness doesn't stop. Our next HT Kids Weekend Away will be taking place 21st - 23rd October (the first weekend of the October half term) and will be for school years 3 and up. Make sure that you keep the date clear and please continue to pray for us and for the preparations for the weekend.

HELP NEEDED FOR PRODUCTION OF UPDATE

We are looking for volunteers (ideally more than one) who would be willing to take over the photocopying and collating of Update each month. Arthur and I have been producing Update for many years and I am happy to continue as editor, but would love to be able to hand over the production of the printed copies to someone else.

I would provide paper masters and/or a computer file and your task would be to photocopy, collate and staple the required number of copies (currently 150), using the church photocopier. The size of Update can vary from 16 to 24 pages (4 to 6 sheets of paper) and the job also includes photocopying, folding and inserting the prayer diary (a single sheet) and producing about 10 large print copies of both Update and the prayer diary.

The work would need to be done on Friday afternoon/evening or Saturday, ready for distribution at the Sunday services.

Photocopying and collating is not the most exciting of jobs; if two of you work together, there is an opportunity to chat.

Please contact me (see inside back cover), if you might be willing to help.

GEORGE WRITES

Dear Friends,

Thank you for your prayers over the last week or two as I have started my new role in the City of London. I would very much value your ongoing prayers and support and I hope that many of you will be able to come up for an informal reception at Girdlers' Hall on the late afternoon of 17th August. Please sign up at the back of church if you would like to come and are able to. It is from 4 – 6.30pm (don't feel you have to be there by 4 precisely) and the address is Basinghall Avenue, London, EC2V 5DD (20 mins taxi from Waterloo or five minutes walk from Bank tube station which is one stop from Waterloo on the Waterloo and City line).

Although it might seem some time ago now, the result of the referendum might have come as quite a shock to many of us. Certainly our nation seems to be going through a time of shaking, with leadership battles in both the main political parties. Even if we feel a degree of trepidation and uncertainty about the future of our nation, we need to trust in God's sovereignty and trust that this is a time of shaking, through which He will bring about good for our nation and, we must pray, the turning of the hearts of many back to Him.

Coming out of the EU will be quite a challenge and we must pray for current and future leaders. However, I believe it is really important that we pray that God will raise up new leaders that have a vision for the long-term future. I also want to suggest that you touch base with your MP to encourage him/her to see some of the possibilities that the future can hold. We often pray in church for the poorest countries of the world; I know we will have an opportunity to do genuine fair trade with them without import tariffs, if we so choose. I'm not sure that many of our current politicians have this in mind, but it is important that the Christian voice is unified and heard now. Similarly, I believe we need to petition our leaders in terms of immigration; that, as a nation, we prioritise those who are most vulnerable, marginalised and persecuted and we can remind the politicians that it is actually Christians (our brothers and sisters in Christ), who are the most persecuted people group throughout the Middle East and many other parts of the world today. There is a time of opportunity now, so please don't just sit back and see what happens, be active, prayerful and do make your voice heard. Our nation has a chance to lead the world in modelling, almost prophetically, what it is to be a richer nation helping the poorest.

On another subject, and closer to home, please be praying and supporting in any way possible the various holiday clubs that will be happening at Holy Trinity in the month of August, both with children and more senior citizens. And whatever happens, be praying behind that so that we may see eternal fruit in lives and, indeed, whole families turning to Christ and following Him.

One more question: do you want to see our church growing? This might seem like a simple question, but there will be a cost in how we answer it. As you probably know, we have had a couple of half days away for people in various forms of leadership at the church and we have identified two key areas where we need to see breakthroughs. These are areas where we can be intentionally involved. The areas are corporate prayer and discipleship. So, if you genuinely do want to see our church grow and are prepared to do something about it, first and foremost please prioritise coming to the monthly PPPs on the first Monday of every month. Even if you can only come for some of the meeting, the coming together of the people of God to petition our Father in heaven is one of the most important and powerful things we can do together (and will be the thing the enemy really tries to have a go at). This will be the key to seeing real growth at every level. And in terms of discipleship, that involves us growing and becoming more Christ-like (as our verse for this year reminds us). Discipleship involves application and putting into practice the Word of God. Are you in a POD group that helps us not just to study the word but also, together, to apply it? If not, why not think of joining one this autumn, so that you can grow in discipleship? And of course, disciples help make other disciples, and so you may like to consider coming alongside someone else, so that we can all 'spur one another along towards good works in Christ Jesus our Lord'.

And don't forget the church barbecue on 19th August (see page 3)

Now, some good news regarding the future. From next Summer we will be having a new full time curate with us who, I know, will bring all sorts of positives with her. Her name is Debs Wignall and she is studying for ordination at St. Mellitus College in London. The curacy will be a bit different as she is married to Danny, the vicar of Shottermill (near Haslemere), so will not be living in Aldershot but commuting over. We will need to find some suitable office space for her which is currently lacking on site. If anyone happens to have a spare room that is essentially redundant and that you think you might be able to release to her for daytime use, please do let me know.

You are also all welcome to the wedding of our daughter Sarah, which is at Holy Trinity at 1 pm on Saturday 6th August.

Continuing the good news. Jackie (Maw) has moved into Wellesley; please pray for her as she and David settle in. She will be licensed as the Pioneer Minister on Saturday 17th September at a fun day in a marquee at Mandora House. Please get that in your diaries (unless you are going on the Soul Sisters weekend) and we will be looking for folk to help with stalls, music, set up etc. This will be the culmination of over twelve years planning and praying and the start of something quite significant!

Be blessed and be a blessing.

ASSOCIATED NEWS

At the end of July I'm taking the wedding of my nephew. (By the time you read this, the wedding will have happened!) The Bible reading chosen by my nephew and his fiancée is 1 Corinthians 13, the well-known chapter on love, and so I've been preparing a talk which starts from that passage. I expect that many of you will have heard a number of sermons on this passage – if you have, then one of the things that a preacher might have said is that one test for each of us is to say the middle section v4-7, where Paul says that love is patient, love is kind etc, but to say with your name instead of love. So I would say John is patient, John is kind – and it's a sobering exercise to do, because you realise, if you're being honest, that you are quite frequently not what Paul says.

But what interested me more in my preparation was to say this passage with the word 'God', instead of 'love' – after all, we say that God is love. And what struck me was the phrase God (love) is not self-seeking. And that started me thinking – what does it mean to say that God is not self-seeking. We say that God wants us to change, but if God is not self-seeking, how does that work?

If someone is not self-seeking then they don't force themselves on you – so God doesn't force himself (or herself) on me – he waits for me to ask. And in the same way that I have to ask Jesus to come into my life, when I repent and commit myself to Jesus, so I have to continue to ask Jesus to change me to be more like him. Because God won't force himself on me.

Our verse for the year is all about us being transformed into the image of Christ with ever-increasing glory by the Spirit as we contemplate the Lord's glory. But if God is not self-seeking, then this transformation won't happen if we don't ask – that's why Paul writes about us contemplating the Lord's glory. It's as we look on the Lord, and his glory (which is seen supremely in his suffering on the cross) that we will want that for ourselves, and that will lead us to ask the Spirit to change us.

I had two conclusions from these reflections. Firstly, 'WOW' – God waits for me to ask – he doesn't force himself on me. I think that that's amazing, that the God of the universe, the God who made the universe and holds it together, sustains it moment by moment, waits for me to ask him to work in my life. Perhaps one of the reasons why sometimes it appears as if God isn't working is because I haven't asked him to...

But secondly, what other aspects of God might I need to rethink if God is love...? Have I built up a picture of what God is like in my mind, which is actually not a correct picture? How do I test that out? Perhaps one way is to see if there are other sentences where we talk about God, what God is like, what God does, and use the word 'love' instead of God, and see whether that rings true, whether that ties in to what we read in the Bible...

MENTAL HEALTH DROP IN

At our drop in on 25th June, Miriam an ex-psychiatric nurse, now a research student at Kingston University, came and talked to us about "hugs". This was very interesting and informative. She has also interviewed some of us for her research.

Jane shared with us the prospectus for the North East Hampshire and Farnham Recovery College - most of the courses are free and we may be able to book some speakers for the Autumn. Our thanks go to everyone for their interest and encouragement.

Unfortunately by the time you read this we will have held our next meeting (July 30th) but this had been advertised on the weekly notice sheet since the beginning of the month.

ALERT BUT NOT ALARMED

George has forwarded the following from the diocese:

Security in our churches: responding to St-Etienne-du-Rouvray

Following the tragic death of Father Jacques Hamel, we join in prayer for all those immediately affected by the tragedy; his congregation; the local community; and also for the wider community in the face of an alarming succession of attacks. Bishop Andrew has written in solidarity to Bishop Michel of our link Diocese in Evry to assure him of our prayers.

Here in the UK the intelligence is that Church leaders and their congregations should remain alert, not alarmed. There is no current intelligence to suggest any attack planning of this nature in this country; however ... advice has been issued by the Metropolitan police, which outlines practical steps which we can take.

KNIT AN ANGEL

As last year, we will be holding a Christmas Angels outreach at the end of the year. The idea is that on one particular midweek night in mid-December, we will take out hundreds of knitted angels, each with a Bible verse or a message of encouragement attached, and place them strategically around the town. In the morning, as people head towards the station or wherever, we hope that under God's guidance, they will be found, read and treasured and help people to look towards Jesus.

Last year many members and friends of HT spent the autumn knitting angels and some hundreds were completed and distributed - on doorsteps, attached to park railings and even on the artillery outside the station. There was some very positive feedback on Facebook and by other means.

If you are able to knit or crochet, then please join in; each angel takes about two hours to complete. There is a very easy pattern available at the back of church.

HELP NEEDED FOR FAMILIES IN GORKHA, NEPAL

The International Nepal Fellowship writes:

Survivors of last year's earthquake [in Nepal] are now facing new challenges. In the hills of Gorkha many people are dependent on farm animals for both food and income. But cattle sheds have been destroyed and, with the monsoon rains, animals are very vulnerable to infection. Some are already sick. They need veterinary care, but the cost is out of the reach of people already struggling to rebuild their lives and feed their families. Losing their livestock would be catastrophic.

From 4th to 7th August our partners at ACN, in co-ordination with the local veterinary office, will be going to Ghyalchowk, in Gorkha, where 1,500 families rely entirely on farming to survive. They will hold a health camp for animals belonging to these families. Each animal will be checked to see if it is healthy. If it is, the owners will be provided with vitamins, minerals, and antiparasitic drugs, so that they can keep it well. Medicine will be distributed for sick animals.

Can you help us raise the £7,200 needed to cover the cost of this programme? It will mean that every family will be able to get a free health check for their animals. It is expected that around 2,500 will be brought to the camp by their owners. That's a cost of less than £3 per animal, but it will mean improved health for them and more security for the families who are dependent on them.

For more information or to donate, go to:

FROM THE LONDON SCHOOL OF SUPERNATURAL MINISTRY

"We are having an amazing time seeing Muslims healed and saved regularly! We are in a Muslim area in London, England, next to a bunch of Mosques. They're all dreaming of Jesus and they are inviting us into their businesses to prophesy and to bring healing to their staff.

It all comes from a place of love and we are seeing Jesus reveal Himself in the most profound ways. One of the Muslim shop owners stops everyone in his shop when we walk in and declares that the Christians are here, and if they are sick we will pray for them and they will be healed! The shop owner led the way to another Muslim man accepting Jesus into his life!"
